Antitrust and the NCAA; Review of Past and Current Issues

Please join the Antitrust Fellows in welcoming Scott Bearby of the NCAA and William King of the The Southeastern Conference, to ASU Law.

The NCAA, the SEC, and college athletics overall has been the focus of much attention in recent years. We plan to explore this topic through a student-moderated discussion with Scott Bearby and William King around these current issues.

Join us for an hour of refreshments and light lunch on the patio, followed by a discussion with on the past and current landscape of antitrust law as it interacts with college sports.

Friday, April 5, 2024
11:15am - 12:15pm | Refreshments
12:15pm - 1:15pm | Discussion

BCLS 544

Joined by the Sports Law and Business Program

Scan or click here to register

Sandra Day O’Connor College of Law
Arizona State University
Antitrust Law Program

Sandra Day O’Connor College of Law
Arizona State University
Selig Sports Law and Business Program