

Family Legal Interest Project

Executive Board Elections

2025-26 Term

FLIP is holding its annual Board elections for the 2025-26 term! All ASU law students are welcome to apply for one or multiple positions.

Application Requirements

Submit the following materials to flip.asu@gmail.com by April 4, 2025:

- (1) statement of interest in position(s) to which you apply (no longer than 2 pages); and
- (2) resume without GPA and class rank.

Overview of FLIP

Organization Purpose

FLIP seeks to increase law student interest in family, probate and estate planning law, provide opportunities to students to create connections with the local legal community, and coordinate pro bono services related to family and probate law.

Available Board Positions and Brief Descriptions

President — Oversees and delegates the duties and responsibilities of the Board of Directors in performing its duties; Serves as the primary point of contact for the faculty advisor and ASU administration.

Director of Internal Affairs — Organizes and facilitates on-campus and virtual events.

Director of External Affairs — Plans and coordinates pro bono events; Creates and maintains strong working relationships with legal professionals.

Director of Finance — Submits and manages requests for funds from ASU funding sources.

Director of Marketing and Public Relations — Designs and implements messaging, flyers and any other advertisements; Manages all FLIP social media platforms.

Executive Administrator — Coordinates and manages FLIP meetings, elections, calendars, and more; Book ASU Law rooms for events or meetings.