

A panel of leading affordable housing and community development attorneys will share insights into their career paths, day-to-day practice, and the skills needed to build a legal career advancing housing affordability and equitable community development. After a moderated discussion there will be time for questions from the audience.

Jan 29th 12-1:15pm

Room 550

Lunch provided for registrants

The ABA Forum on Affordable Housing and Community Development Presents:
LEGAL CAREERS IN AFFORDABLE HOUSING & COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

REGISTER

